FREE SUMMER READING & LEARNING CHALLENGE!

The Warren-Trumbull County Public Library's free Summer Reading & Learning Challenge awards prizes for time spent reading at home! Kids, teens & adults, too!

Children Ages Birth – 3

The Tadpole Club is a summer reading program specially for younger children. Share literacy-based activities with your little one and they can receive a prize!

Kids Ages 3 – 12

Kids can earn prizes for reading at home and participating in other learning activities by playing BINGO!

- Kids will each receive a Reading Challenge BINGO log.
- Complete activities in 5 boxes in a row (Read for 20 Minutes, Read or Write a Poem, etc.) to get a BINGO and win a prize!
- Kids can continue reading for more prizes!

Teens in Grades 7 – 12

Teens can complete reading, writing, or activity options for their Summer Challenge Bingo to receive a prize, an entry into the Grand Prize Drawing, and an invitation to the After Hours Event!

To Participate:

Beginning May 30, stop by any W-TCPL location to pick up a paper BINGO log.

- OR -

Register and log your reading activities online at WTCPL.READSQUARED.COM (or download the ReadSquared app), then visit any W-TCPL location to pick up your prizes!

Check the library's website and social media for upcoming summer events!

All Together Now: Let's help animals in our community! This summer, for every children's and teen reading log completed, $1 will be donated to the Animal Welfare League by the Friends of the Warren Library. Help us reach our goal of 1000 completed logs!

Visit a Warren-Trumbull County Public Library location near you to participate in the free Summer Reading Program!
